

2021 HTUP Workshop

Building upon the Trade Union Program's commitment to education and guidance for the labor movement, we have designed a multi-class online workshop that combines the highlights and strengths of our core curriculum with a focus on current urgent challenges: overcoming the raging pandemic, navigating the economic recession, and achieving pathways to racial justice.

The workshop consists of ten class sessions led by experts in their fields. The workshop will not be a passive webinar where participants only listen to the experts, but instead this will be an interactive learning experience with small group breakouts, case studies, and readings. The best way to learn is to be actively involved in developing ideas and solutions. We will cover many big issues that have been under fierce societal debate, but hopefully, through this process, we will have a better understanding of the issues and the directions to move forward.

For HTUP alumni, this will be a good refresher course to reinvigorate your soul by learning from and interacting with other union leaders and experts from around the world. Ideally, it will bring back that spark and ways of thinking you experienced in the HTUP.

The workshops are designed for current and former labor leaders, but we welcome anyone dealing with and interested in these issues.

Topics and instructors include:

- Advancing Worker Protections in a Covid and Post-Covid Workplace - David Weil, Dean and Professor at the Heller School of Social Policy and Management at Brandeis University
- Covid-19: An Institutional Stress Test – Elaine Bernard, Wertheim Fellow, LWP and Former Executive Director, Labor and Worklife Program, Harvard Law School
- The Scary Reality of Climate Change and Implications for Work– Richard Freeman, Herbert Ascherman Professor of Economics, Harvard University and Co-Faculty Director of the Labor and Worklife Program, Harvard Law School and Xi Hu, Labor and Worklife Fellow, LWP, Harvard Law School
- Labor Law in the New Congress and Biden Administration – Benjamin Sachs, Kestnbaum Professor of Labor and Industry, Harvard Law School and Co-Faculty Director of the Labor and Worklife Program, and Sharon Block, Executive Director, Labor and Worklife Program, Harvard Law School
- Labor, Capitalism and the Question of Racial Justice– Bill Fletcher Jr., Author
- Overview of the Economy - William Spriggs, Professor of Economics, Howard University and Chief Economist to the AFL-CIO
- Pandemic Around the World – HTUP Alumni
- Union Leadership and Advancing Equity - KC Wagner, Director of Workplace Issues at Cornell University's ILR Metro District Office in New York City and Tony Richard, principal, The Bennae Group
- Covid and Capital Stewardship – David Webber, Professor of Law, Boston University and Christopher Mackin, Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations
- Health and Safety Crash Course for Organizers – Marcy Goldstein-Gelb, Co-executive director of National COSH

Dates and Times

The workshops consist of ten 90 minute sessions over four days, on two consecutive Thursdays and Fridays. The same workshop will be given twice, once in February and once in March. The dates for the workshop are February 11 & 12, 18 & 19 or March 11 & 12, 18 & 19. The workshops will be held between 3-8 pm EST. We have chosen late afternoon to facilitate the fullest participation possible for our friends in different time zones.

Cost

Tuition for the workshops is $1000 (which includes all four days). We offer an early registration discount -- register by December 31, 2020, and tuition is reduced to $800. We also offer a group discount -- any organization that registers five participants can include a sixth participant for free. The final registration deadline is February 2, 2021.

Register

Sign up for the workshops. Your registration is not complete until payment is received.

Payment

You can pay online by either check or credit card or you can mail in a check.

For secure online payment click here

Otherwise, make check payable to the Harvard Trade Union Program and mail it to:

HTUP c/o LWP
50 Church Street, 3rd floor
Cambridge, MA 02138

For questions, contact Alida Castillo at 617-495-7678 or htup@law.harvard.edu

You can find this information and links on our website at <https://lwp.law.harvard.edu/2021-htup-workshop>