You can tag your posts for specific workshops and topics.

You also have the option of commenting anonymously if you feel more comfortable.
3) WORKSHOPS: Access the workshop content

On the Workshops tab, you can access all the workshops and their info, readings and attachments.

- By default, the workshops are grouped and sorted by date/time.
- You can filter and search through the workshops by keywords or topics.
- You can also view and download the entire workshop schedule.

Session 4: Strategic Planning and Strategic Choice in Face of Uncertainty

Date: March 17 (Thursday)
Time: 5:00-6:30 pm EST

Workshop Description

Presenter: Elbah Bernhard, Wurth Fellow, LWW and former Executive Director, Labor and Worklife Program, Harvard Law School

Strategic Planning requires organizers to look at the economic, social and political challenges ahead, assess their resources and choose priorities, set goals and chart a course for the future. But what happens when a global pandemic changes everything and places new demands on the union, its members and resources? Is strategic planning still necessary or even possible with so much uncertainty? Bernhard argues that it is not only possible but more important than ever as employers and governments seek to redefine work and employment relations in face of a continuing pandemic.
